What is the difference between Exodus and Deuteronomy?

In Deuteronomy, God reiterates the laws and commandments given to the Israelites in Exodus, emphasizing the importance of obedience and faithfulness. While Exodus focuses on the miraculous deliverance of the Israelites from slavery in Egypt and the establishment of the covenant at Mount Sinai, Deuteronomy serves as a reminder and renewal of that covenant as the Israelites prepare to enter the Promised Land. Both books emphasize the need for the Israelites to trust in God's guidance and follow His laws in order to experience His blessings and protection.

Joshua 1 Summary

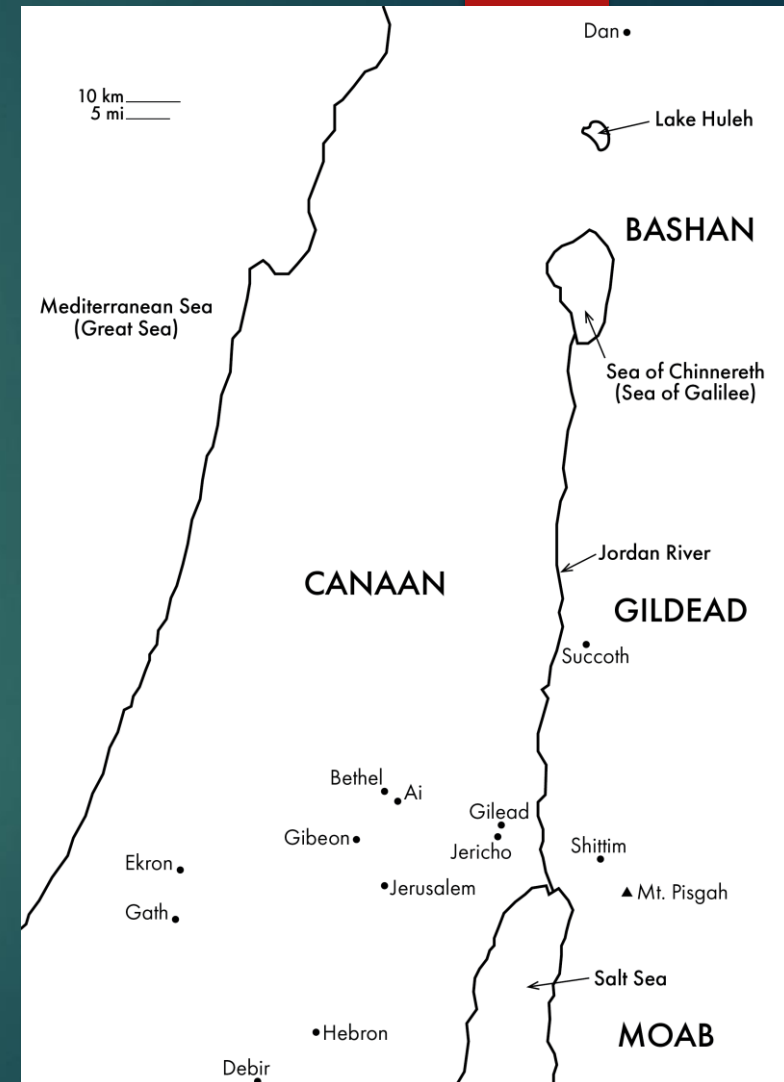

WHEN:

The book of Joshua picks up where Deuteronomy left off. The Israelites were just about to enter the Promised Land after wandering in the wilderness for 40 years.

The Israelites were in the wilderness from approximately 1490-1450 B.C., which places the events recorded in Joshua 1 at approximately 1450 B.C.

WHERE:

- Moses died on Mount Nebo (at the top of Pisgah). The Book of Joshua begins at the Israelites' encampment near the mountain. The exact location of their camp appears to be a place called Shittim (3:1).

GOD COMMISSIONS JOSHUA AS LEADER OF ISRAEL (1:1-9)

- Moses was buried by God (Read Deut 34)
- Joshua was now the Man (at about 80 years old!), after all the years of training starting at Exodus 17
- God promised to give Israel the land west of the Jordan, from the wilderness to the Euphrates River and from the land of the Hittites to the Great Sea.
- God assured Joshua that no opposing army would be able to defeat Israel because the Lord fought for them.
- He encouraged Joshua to be “strong and very courageous” and to keep the laws of God on his mind continually.

What can this mean to us?

APPLICATION:

- We have to understand that people and things die, and to let them go.
- We need to move in to what God has for us.
- Remember and thank God for His promises for us!
- Blessings can be passed on
- Remember how big God is (v5) and that He will not leave us
- Our Job is to be all that he has made us to be.
- Repeat!
- Follow instructions of faithful leaders
- Read the book, but not just read, devour it!

Questions:

- 1) Does God have a plan for you?
- 2) Have you completed the plan?
- 3) Who are you passing your wisdom and knowledge of God too?
